

Under Governor's Executive Order 20-91, the following are examples of non-essential businesses, but are not limited to:

- Acupuncture (unless service is under the care of a medical provider)
- Antique stores
- Auction houses
- Automotive tint, wash, detail, and accessory businesses
- Amusement parks
- Beauty supply and skin care stores
- Boat dealerships, rentals, and charters; kayak sales and rentals
- Bookstores
- Bowling alleys
- Clothing and shoe retail, rental, or consignment
- Craft, art, and hobby supply stores
- Concert and music halls
- Day/Beauty spas, hair or nail salons, and barber shops
- Décor and Lighting sales businesses
- Entertainment establishments
- Florist businesses
- Fitness, Dance, Pilates, and Yoga studios and gyms
- Furniture stores
- Jewelry stores and jewelry repair businesses
- Massage (unless service is under the care of a medical provider)
- Mattress stores
- Movie and other theaters
- Music and instrument stores; music lesson providers
- Museums
- Optical retail stores (non-prescription)
- Painting, craft, or art studios
- Pet grooming businesses (including mobile and those co-located with pet retail stores)
- Pet sales and adoptions as a primary business (excluding on premises animal care)
- Pool halls
- Smoke, tobacco, CBD, or vape stores
- Spa and hot tub sales businesses
- Sporting goods sales and repair businesses
- Stereo installation and sales businesses
- Tailors and alterations
- Tattoo and piercing services
- Toy retail stores or amusement rental businesses
- Video gaming retail or rentals
- Vitamin stores (unless service is under the care of a medical provider)
- Water parks
- Yard, garage, and estate sales
- Zoos