

Under Governor's Executive Order 20-91, the following are examples of essential services, but are not limited to:

- AA/NA and other meetings (requires social distancing)
- Animal shelters/adoptions at shelters
- Appliance rental stores and repair
- Automobile dealerships, repairs and maintenance, auto parts stores
- Banks and financial institutions
- Bicycle sales, repairs and maintenance
- Cell phone stores and repair
- Community based organizations providing meals and social services
- Critical trades: (Plumbers, Electricians, Exterminators, Security personnel, etc.) Fire and water damage restoration, appliance repair personnel, exterminators, and other service providers (such as landscape and pool maintenance service providers) who provide services that are necessary to maintaining the safety, sanitation, and essential operation of residences and other structures;
- Firearm sales and ranges
- First Responders, Police and Fire, Jails and Prisons
- Flight schools (only if located on airport property)
- Food and beverage (grocery stores, food banks, alcohol sales, restaurants: delivery, take-out or curbside delivery)
- Funeral services
- Garbage and Sanitation services
- Gas Stations
- Government operations
- Hardware, garden, and supply stores
- Hospitals, clinics, and other healthcare operations
- Hotel and lodging
- Human Service operations (including community-based organizations providing meals)
- Insurance
- Laundromats
- Law Firms (only for meeting court-ordered deadlines)
- Manufacturing facilities
- Moving companies
- Post offices and shipping services
- Process servers
- Realtors
- Stores: batteries, electronics, light bulbs, and office supplies
- Tax preparation services
- Telemarketing (requires social distancing)
- Title companies
- Transportation: airports, ride sharing, taxis, and public transportation such as PSTA
- Utilities, Public Works and essential infrastructure
- Veterinarians
- Warehouses: food distribution, food manufacture, and product distribution